

Your vocational contentment is our goal!

Our flexible modells for interested candiditates:

- Permenant contract with Equip GmbH while working on our clients side

Your Advantage:

- While having the job interview, we offer you various positions in your expertise field
- You decide in which of our clients project you want to get involved
- During a visit in our clients office, you have the opportunity to get an impression of the work environment on our clients side
- In case you and our client are convinced, the project starts and we are happy to welcome you in our team
- We provide the necessary infrastructure
- Since we seriously care about the well-being of our employees, we offer the opportunity for lunch meetings to have a chat about the this and that.

- Permanent placement on the client side

Your Advantage:

- While having the job interview, we offer you various positions in your expertise field
- You decide which position and project comply your desired future vocational assignments
- We organize a job interview on the client side, support you with the preparations and company you to the interview.
- In case you and our client are convinced about a cooperation, we congratulate to the new job

- Cooperation with Freelancers based on project works

When requested, we are happy to introduce you to our reference clients and projects in a personal chat.

Don´t hesitate – Apply today
We are looking forward to hear from you!!